Criteria for Awards

1. Only members of St. David's congregation (not including staff) are eligible.
2. Each applicant must formally apply to the Scholarship Committee, using this form.
3. Each applicant will be judged by his/her contributions to the life of the parish (acolyte, church school, lay reader, choir, youth group, assistance in grounds maintenance under supervision, community service, etc.). Character and academic performance will also be taken into consideration.
4. Financial aid awards are given to assist with tuition for study programs such as college, graduate study, Education for Ministry (EFM), career enhancement and special summer programs.

The Scholarship Committee

The funds for scholarship awards have been made available from generous bequests by Caroline Walker, Edith Hutton, Grace Wheat, Ruth Stott and the Rev. Charles Ehly, as well as from contributions by the St. David's Thrift Shop, memorial donations and donations by individual members and non-members of St. David's Parish. The management of the fund will be under the direct supervision of the Scholarship Committee Chairperson.
